

Engagement Team

Wade Steen, CPA, BS, Ohio State University, Accounting (Honors Program)

Wade served as your engagement partner. He is licensed to practice as a certified public accountant (CPA) in the State of Ohio. Wade has 25 years of experience assisting local governments with operational and financial management and reporting issues. Wade has served as a Deputy State Auditor, Franklin County Treasurer and is an elected City Council member in Upper Arlington. Wade was directly responsible for all services provided to the City and Township as the engagement partner.

Eric Richter, BA, Ohio University, Public Administration

Eric is a Consulting Manager, and the former Income Tax Administrator for the City of Chillicothe and Deputy Franklin County Treasurer. Eric has 10 years public sector work experience, with more than five in public finance capacities. Eric has provided consulting services to various local governments, including the Cities of Whitehall and Dublin, and counties of Adams, Brown, Clinton, Franklin and Hamilton.

Gregory P. Barwell, JD, Ohio Northern University College of Law

Greg has a practical, experience based knowledge of the law enabling him to provide valuable, pragmatic counsel to his clients in all areas of municipal law, commercial transactions, business finance, contracts, intellectual property, and employment matters. Greg also has extensive experience in campaign finance and election laws, and state administrative law, including licensing enforcement matters representing clients in regulated businesses. He also has experience in litigating and researching issues dealing with municipal sewer and water expansion.

Roy Woodson-Levy, BS, Franklin University, Accounting

Roy is a Staff Consultant with more than ten years experience in auditing and evaluating and documenting systems and processes. Roy has provided audit and consulting services to various local governments including the City of Whitehall, Butler County and Columbus Metropolitan Library.