

Proclamation

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Whereas, as a long-time resident of Washington Township, Bob Corbin has served the local community in many capacities and provided us all with a distinguished example of civic engagement and citizen involvement; and

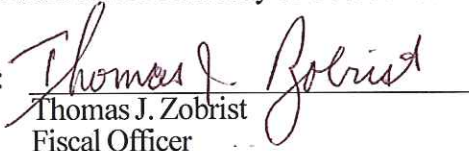

WHEREAS, his dedicated service also has benefited our state and country -- from military service in World War II to 24 years as a member of the Ohio House of Representatives; and

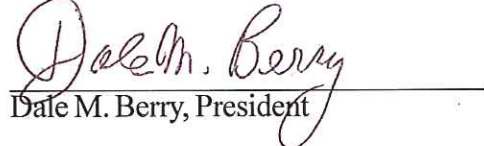

WHEREAS, The Centerville-Washington Foundation has recognized Bob Corbin's outstanding contributions with the Community Founder Award, reserved for those residents who have set the standard for dedicated and distinguished leadership in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED by the Washington Township Board of Trustees, Montgomery County, Ohio, that Robert L. Corbin be recognized as a truly deserving recipient of the Community Founder Award and that he be thanked for his many contributions to Washington Township, our state and our country.

Proclaimed the seventeenth day of October two thousand and eleven.
