

Proclamation

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF TRUSTEES

OHIO ARTS ADVOCACY DAY 2010 Washington Township, Ohio

Whereas, Arts Advocacy Day will be observed April 21st by the Ohio Arts Council and Ohio Citizens for the Arts Foundation in Columbus, Ohio; and

WHEREAS, The arts contribute to economic competitiveness and recovery across the state by helping communities diversify their economies, revitalize their downtowns, and improve the quality of life for their citizens through arts and culture; and

WHEREAS, Public support ensures broad access to the arts for all so that the benefits of participating in the arts can be realized; and

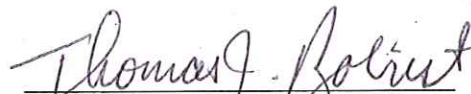

WHEREAS, Arts and arts education cultivate the kind of imaginative thinking, problem-solving skills and innovation that children need in order to be prepared for the global workforce of the 21st century; and

WHEREAS, Arts and arts education are important tools for ensuring a better tomorrow, both for our children and for our community.

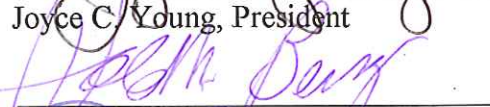

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED by the Washington Township Board of Trustees, Montgomery County, Ohio, that April 21st be celebrated as Arts Day, and that we recognize the important contribution the arts makes to our community.

Proclaimed this nineteenth day of April two thousand and ten.

Attest to:

Thomas J. Zobrist, Fiscal Officer

Joyce C. Young, President

Dale M. Berry, Vice President

Scott Paulson, Trustee

